The Commissions,

Having examined the final report of the Seminar on "Role of small and medium-sized enterprises in economic development through movements of persons, travel and tourism" held from 11 to 13 November 1985;

Recognize that small and medium-sized enterprises would seem to provide the most realistic means to establish a network of facilities and services best suited to meet the varied requirements of travellers;

Confirm the important role of Governments in creating a favourable climate for the operation of small and medium-sized travel enterprises as well as in adopting appropriate measures to maximize their potential;
